ing for Portsmouth to play three games there with the same nine that Bariey kain had here last week. On their own grounds the Richmonders won two out of three games, and in Portsmouth they have been small as good. In fact, grounds the Richmonders won two due of three games, and in Portsmouth they hope to be equally as good. In fact, there are four games scheduled for Portsmouth between to-day and Wednesday afternoon, and it is the intention of the locals to take three out of the four. All of the pitchers will be taken down on the trip. Salve will probably work in to-day's game, for the southpaw has been very effective since he started in to twirl for this clib. He has plenty of speed and lots of curves, and when he shoots them across the plate there is very little hitting done by the batters who face him. He is a quiet, unassuming lad and has the making of a great ball player in him, Long will likely work in one of the sames and Still be called for duty in the double-header. Drew, may not pitch until the game here of Thursday.

Danvillo's strong team comes here the latter part of this woek, and thon there will be the story of who gets into fourth place. Upon the result of three or four games played here this week between Richmond and Danville will depend the third position on the ladder for the pennant. If Danville, by any chance of misfortune, beats Richmond the Tobacconists will slin gently up the ladder. conists will slip gently up the ladder, and the Richmond stock will fall about

Personal Notes.

Personal Notes.

The Atlanta Georgian, the new paper of Atlanta, and already a recognized sporting authority, says that Billy Smith, owner of the Southern League club in Atlanta, is looking for Colonel Franklin Leslie Still, of Richmond.

The Colonel may be sold before the season closes. He is the star twirler of Richmond, and in fact he hasn't a peer in the league. Richmond would have been further down in the percentage column had it not been for the masterful pitching of Still.

Smilling and serene, Revelle took his defeat Saturday. He is a happy fellow whether he wins or loses and he pitches hall that counts for him in the majority of the games. But it was a case of Greek meeting Greek when Happy Eckstone stuck his foot in the box for the Lawmalsers. Eckstone came out the winner.

stuck his foot in the box for the Lawmakers. Eckstone came out the winner.

Catcher Phil Hinton, who has been out of the game for some time on account of a sore finger will get behind the bat this week. He will likely go to work on Wednesday. Hinton is a good catcher.

Mrs. Still, wife of the popular pitcher of the Richmond team, who for the past two or three weeks has been at her home, Mt. Olivette, Ky., has returned to the city. She will remain here until the end of the season.

Mr. A. J. Hinton, brother of Catcher
Phil, Hinton, was in Richmond from Baltimore yesterday. Mr. Hinton will accompany the team to Portsmouth and will yell for the Lawmakers.

At nine o'clock this morning the crowd will leave and they hope to return with at least three games to their credit.

Danville ought to be easy here the latter part of the week. Richmond certainly doesn't care for the fourth seat.

NELSON GETS BIG SUM OUT OF FIGHT

Shrewd Nolan, in Arranging the Match, Surpasses Himself in the Matter of Purse Division and Rules-Dane

Gets Two-Thirds Even if Knocked Out.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK. August 12.—Now that the Battling Nelson-Joe Gans match has really been made, fight enthusiasts all over the country are busily discussing the chances of the contestants. As it is is a little to the chances of the contestants. As it is is a little to the chances of the contestants. As it is is a little to the chances of the contestants of the fight fevore Nelson. This is as it should be, otherwise the bout would have a "fixed" look, for Billy Nolan has never been known to sign articles for a fight unless his man had more or less advantage ever his opponent under the rules. Indeed, Mr. Nelan has won with his head far more battles for Nelson than ever the latter did with his fists. If the willy manager should allow himself to agree to a match with Joe Gans without having every possible advantage for his charge, it would be so strange that it would seem uncanny.

From the conditions of the match it looks as if Nolan expects Battling to be whipped, and therefore he has out done himself in arranging things so that his man gets the lion's share of the purso. No matter hew the fight goes, whether Nelson wins or loses, he will receive 20,000 of the $30,000 purso offered by the club at Goldfield, Nevada, where the fight is to be held on Labor Day. This leaves $10,000 for Gans, and he will not get any more even if he knocks out the Dane.

This is one had feature of the match, for Gans is not as likely to fight his best when he knows he will receive 20,000 of the $30,000 purso offered by the club at Goldfield, Nevada, where the fight is to be held on Labor Day. This leaves $10,000 for Gans, and he will not get any more even if he knocks out the Dane.

SARATOGA. August 12.—The poolroom men and their assistants have been put to it recently to send out prompt and accurate information, from the racetrack. The latest device employed by them is a 7-foot pole, which they had er/oted by the Hudson River Telephone Company Friday night on the Bradley property, just outside the western end of the track.

Operators and instruments could be seen on this pole from the track yesterday afternoon. The other means for obtaining the racing results have been serlously interfered with. On Thursday
Mr. Morrissey, who had rented his Neison Avenue cottage to a woman discovered telegraph lines running from his house. He decided that his tenant

Bruce, a local Western Union lineman, cut down the offending wires.
Pinkerton's men then stretched canvas so as to obstruct the view of the track from the Morrissey windows, Another attempt was made to erect a station in Spencer Trask's heautiful park. A leafy tree was made the station, and high amid their natural surroundings the operators viewed the winners. They also had an advantageous outlook for officials, and by the time and miscreants they were among the missing. The apparatus was appropriated, however.

New Swimming Record.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, August 12.—C. M. Danlels, the champlon swimmer, yesterday broke the record for the course at Travers Island in the 100-yard swim for the champlonship of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U., winning the race with ease. Danlels started out at a great pace, with the idea in mind of lowering the world's record for 100 yards (1024-5), which is held jointly by himself and a number of foreign swimmers. But after he had gone about thirty yards he found himself so far in the lead that he slowed up a bit, thinking he was going too fast to stand the strain. The result was that his time was 1:03, which broke the record for the course by four-fifths of a second.
